TICKET INFORMATION

The Oakland Football Marketing Association (OFMA) is handling the sale of tickets to Oakland Raiders games at Network Associates Coliseum. For ticket information, contact the Oakland Football Marketing Association at 888-44RAIDERS. The OFMA is located at 7901 Oakport Rd., Suite 4300, Oakland, CA 94621.

THE OAKLAND RAIDERS FACILITY

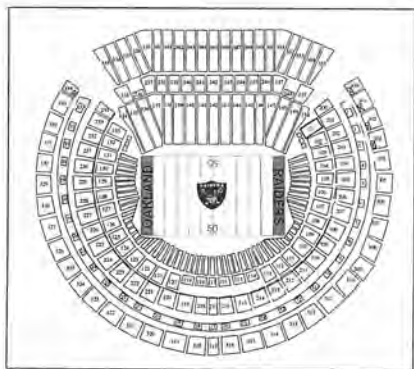

The Oakland Raiders permanent facility sits on approximately 13 acres of land in the Harbor Bay Business and Research Park in Alameda, located just north of the Oakland International Airport and about one mile from the team's former training facility on Doolittle Drive in Oakland.

The Raiders facility is 100,000 square feet and houses the team's executive and administrative offices as well as coaches offices, player meeting rooms, locker room, training facility, television and radio studios and media center.

Three full-sized grass practice fields are located on the property. In 1997, improvements and renovations were made at the facility to suit the team's present needs. The Silver and Black moved football and business operations into the facility in mid-June, 1996.

NETWORK ASSOCIATES COLISEUM

Oakland Raiders home games are played at Network Associates Coliseum. The Coliseum opened on September 18, 1966 with the Raiders hosting the Kansas City Chiefs. The Coliseum, located three miles from Oakland International Airport, was built by the City of Oakland and the County of Alameda.

The all-time Coliseum record for football attendance is 61,656 fans on November 4, 1996, when the Raiders hosted the Denver Broncos in a Monday Night Football contest.

The Coliseum underwent major renovation that began during the Raiders' 1995 season. The remodeled Coliseum's capacity is now 63,142 with added luxury suites, club levels, two new club lounges, new locker rooms, remodeled press box, new video scoreboards and additional amenities. The playing surface is natural grass. Nearly 100 million people have passed through the turnstiles of the Coliseum, which rests on 120 acres. Originally known as the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, it was re-named Network Associates Coliseum in October, 1998.

THE GREATNESS OF THE RAIDERS

The Raiders, who began play in the American Football League in 1960, enter their 41st year of professional football competition, including the last 30 as a member of the National Football League.

For over four decades — the 1960s, '70s, '80s and the '90s — the Raiders have been the most dominant team in major professional sports since Al Davis first pledged in 1963 to build the finest organization in pro sports.

During these 37 years, the Raiders have won an American Football League Championship, three American Football Conference Championships, three World Championships of Professional Football, participated in four Super Bowls, played in 12 Championship games, won or tied for 14 Division Championships, had 18 playoff seasons, 30 seasons at .500 or better, played in 36 postseason games and won 360 contests.

In that span, the Raiders have also produced five Pro Coaches of the Year, had 11 players inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, produced 50 Pro Bowl players who made 148 Pro Bowl appearances.

The Raiders are the only team to have been in Super Bowls in the '60s, the '70s and the '80s. The Raiders are one of only two original American Football League teams to have won a Super Bowl since 1969 and have already done so three times. The Raiders are one of only two AFC teams to have won two Super Bowls since 1980. The Raiders are the only AFC team to have won Super Bowls under more than one head coach.

Since 1963, when Al Davis first took over the failing Oakland franchise that had struggled to win only nine of 42 league games in the initial three seasons of the new American Football League, and pledged to build the finest organization in sports, the Raiders have totally dominated professional football in terms of consistent victory.

TOP PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL RECORDS
1963-1999
Team	Winning Percentage
1. OAKLAND RAIDERS	.624
2. Dallas Cowboys	.621
3. Jacksonville Jaguars (since 1995)	.613
4. Miami Dolphins (since 1966)	.606

During those memorable 37 years in Oakland and Los Angeles, the Raiders won 339 league games, tied 11 and lost only 204. The Raiders continue to stand alone atop the NFL for this period with their winning percentage of .624.

Commitment to Excellence has never been an idle phrase to those who have proudly represented the Raider organization during the '60s, '70s, '80s and '90s as shown by their domination of pro football as the most successful organization for these four decades.

Eleven of the great players who proudly wore Silver and Black, as well as owner-leader Al Davis, have already been enshrined in the Professional Football Hall of Fame.

In 1970, as the Raiders began their second decade of play, the merger between the AFL and NFL became a reality on the field. In the 1970-1999 period of interconference play, the Raiders have compiled a remarkable 72-38-1 record against pre-season NFC rivals.

Another innovation came to professional football in 1970 — Monday Night Football. The Raiders' total domination of this prime-time ABC television series has seen the Silver and Black build an incredible 33-17-1 record in Monday night play. In the 30 years of this series, the Raiders are 13-2-0 in Monday Night Football games at home.

For their four decades — the '60s, '70s, '80s and '90s — the Raiders have had the greatest players, the greatest coaches, the greatest plays and participated in the greatest games in the annals of professional sports.

Challengers to Raider domination of professional football will arise in the new millennium as they have in the '60s, the '70s, '80s and the '90s. The Raider organization will continue to meet these challenges. The past has been glorious, but THE GREATNESS OF THE RAIDERS REMAINS IN ITS FUTURE.

RAIDERS OWNERS

AL DAVIS

An unyielding total commitment to excellence has marked the three-time World Champion Raiders monumental rise during the last 37 years to the very top of the professional sports world. During these decades of destiny, the Raiders battled their way to the best winning percentage in professional football.

In these memorable 37 years, the Raiders have had 25 winning seasons, including 16 in a row from 1965 through the 1980 World Championship season. In 30 of those seasons, the Raiders have earned a record of .500 or better.

Al Davis' five-decade professional football story, from assistant coach of the Chargers, to head coach and general manager of the Raiders, to Commissioner of the American Football League and finally to principal owner and president of the general partner of the organization with pro football's winningest percentage — the Oakland Raiders — is a standard that no one in the history of professional football can match for winning and excellence.

In April, 1966, the then 36-year-old Davis, head coach and general manager of the Raiders, became Commissioner of the American Football League. This was a post he accepted reluctantly, for first and foremost, Al Davis was a football coach, and knew that assuming the Commissionership would in all probability mean an end to his coaching career.

But AFL owners, in their battle with the rival National Football League, prevailed on Davis to accept the position. He was described by AFL president and Buffalo Bills owner Ralph Wilson as "a coaching genius and astute administrator."

Just eight weeks later, when pro football's two major leagues put an end to their six-year war, Davis was acclaimed nationally as the driving force who brought the leagues to merge. In 1969, he was once again a prime force in the dramatic realignment of professional football when two 13-team conferences — the AFC and NFC — were formed for 1970.

As a member of the NFL Management Council's Executive Committee, Davis has been a major factor in achieving collective bargaining agreements with the players.

Al Davis first came to the Raiders in January, 1963, dedicated to rescuing the faltering Oakland franchise and building the finest organization in professional sports. Just 33, Davis was the youngest man in pro football to hold the demanding dual positions of head coach and general manager.

But Davis already possessed 14 years coaching experience. He had been tabbed a "young coaching genius" by Sports Illustrated and "the most inventive mind in the country" by Scholastic Coach magazine.

The Raiders — "picked to finish dead last" — thundered to a 10-4 record and just missed the Division Championship. In 1963, Davis was named Pro Football Coach of the Year.

Perhaps his most singular honor is having made a record eight presentations of inductees to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The eight great enshrinees to have selected Al Davis to make the presentation speeches on their behalf are Lance Alworth, Jim Otto, George Blanda, Willie Brown, Gene Upshaw, Fred Biletnikoff, Art Shell and Ted Hendricks.

Davis himself became enshrined on August 1, 1992 when he was presented for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame by the great former Raiders head coach, and now leading television football analyst, John Madden.

In May of 1991, Al Davis became the very first recipient of the NFL Players Association's Retired Players Award of Excellence "for his contributions to the men who played the game."

Born July 4, 1929, Al Davis was raised in Brockton, Massachusetts, and moved at an early age to Brooklyn, New York. He attended Wittenberg College and Syracuse University, earning a degree in English while participating in football, basketball and baseball.

Al Davis received a Letterman of Distinction Award from Syracuse University. In March of 1998, Davis was inducted into the NFL Alumni's "Order of the Leather Helmet," presented annually to "individuals who have made significant contributions to the game of professional football."

On December 29, 1999, the Oakland Tribune and the Alameda Newspaper Group named Al Davis the Bay Area's most significant sports figure of the 20th Century.

In 1950, Davis was named line coach at Adelphi College in New York. He then went into the Army, being assigned as head football coach at Ft. Belvoir, Virginia. There he molded a national power service team and capped one season by defeating the University of Maryland, National Collegiate Champions, in a squad game.

Davis next served on the staff of the NFL's Baltimore Colts in 1954, at age 24, concentrating on player personnel work. During 1955-56, he was line coach and chief recruiter at The Citadel. He then spent three years at the University of Southern California as line coach.

In 1960, head coach Sid Gillman hired Davis as offensive end coach of the newly formed Los Angeles Chargers. After two Division Championships in just three years there, it was on to meet the challenges with the Raiders of Oakland in 1963.

SUPER BOWL RINGS

The Raiders World Championship rings — awarded to players, coaches, staff and owners after the dominating victories in Super Bowl XI, Super Bowl XV and Super Bowl XVIII — are renowned as the most memorable pieces of championship team jewelry ever produced.

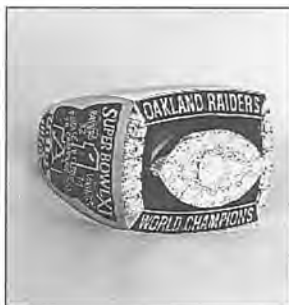

The rings were produced by Lenox Awards of St. Charles, Illinois, whose staff developed creative concepts incorporating the explicit guidelines established by the Raiders — white gold, a raised football-shaped crest of diamonds on a black surface and a design based on "massive excellence" that would recognize these crowning achievements by the Raider organization.

The Super Bowl XVIII ring design features three large diamonds to represent the three World Championships won within eight years, each centered in a football-shaped crest plus an additional 20 five-point diamonds.

The Super Bowl XV ring design, featuring two large center diamonds to symbolize the two World Championships won within five years, and 33 five-point diamonds on the ring face, was developed by Al Davis, Head Coach Tom Flores, Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards President Tom Brasher.

RAIDERS COACHES

JON GRUDEN Head Coach

Jon Gruden is now in his third season as Head Coach of the Oakland Raiders. Last year, Gruden led the Raiders to an 8-8 record despite facing the toughest schedule of any NFL team in 1999. In 1998, his first year as the Raiders' Head Coach, Gruden led the Silver and Black to a four-game improvement over the previous year, going 8-8.

Gruden was named on Thursday, January 22, 1998 as head coach of the Oakland Raiders. Gruden spent the previous three seasons as offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles. As a seven-year NFL assistant, Gruden saw his teams qualify for the playoffs five times. He also coached five seasons at the collegiate level.

Gruden was the NFL's youngest offensive coordinator at age 31 when Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes hired him in 1995. The Eagles had a 26-21-1 record during his tour of duty, including playoff appearances after both the 1995 and 1996 campaigns in the highly competitive NFC Eastern Division.

In 1997, the Eagles ranked second in passing, fifth in rushing and third in total offense in the NFC. In 1996, they led the NFC in passing, were second in rushing and led the conference in total offense. In Gruden's first season as an NFL offensive coordinator in 1995, the Eagles finished fourth in the entire league in rushing.

Gruden, 36, is the youngest head coach presently employed in the NFL and the third-youngest field general in the 40-year history of the Silver and Black. Raiders owner Al Davis was 33 when he was named head coach and general manager of the Silver and Black in 1963. John Madden was 32 when he was promoted to the head post in 1969.

Before joining Philadelphia, Gruden worked for three seasons with the Green Bay Packers. He served as an offensive assistant to Packers head coach Mike Holmgren in 1992, then spent the 1993 and 1994 seasons as Green Bay's receivers coach.

The Packers were 27-21 for those three seasons and were in the playoffs in two of those years. Gruden spent the 1991 football season in the college ranks as wide receivers coach at the University of Pittsburgh under head coach Paul Hackett.

Gruden was an offensive assistant to head coach George Seifert with the San Francisco 49ers in 1990, working closely with offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren. The 49ers were an NFL-best 14-2, finally losing in the NFC Championship Game.

In his first four seasons in the coaching profession — 1986-89 — Gruden served assistantships at the University of Tennessee in 1986 and 1987 as the Volunteers totaled 17-7-1 and won against Big Ten opponents in the Liberty Bowl and Peach Bowl. In 1988, he was passing game coordinator at Southeast Missouri State and in 1989 coached wide receivers at the University of the Pacific.

Born August 17, 1963 in Sandusky, Ohio, Gruden was a three-year letterman at quarterback at the University of Dayton, graduating in 1985 with a degree in Communications. Dayton had a 24-7 record in Gruden's three varsity seasons there.

Gruden and his wife Cindy — a former University of Tennessee cheerleader — have three sons, Jon II, 6, Michael, 3 and infant Jayson.

Gruden's father, Jim, is a regional scout for the San Francisco 49ers and formerly served as an assistant coach under John McKay with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as well as at Notre Dame. His brother, Jay, played in the Arena Football League and is the youngest head coach in that league with the Orlando Predators, winners of the Arena League title in 1998 and runner-ups in 1999.

JON GRUDEN'S CAREER AT A GLANCE

CHUCK BRESNAHAN

Defensive Coordinator

Chuck Bresnahan is in his first season as the Raiders defensive coordinator after serving the previous two seasons coaching the team's defensive backs. From 1996-97, Bresnahan was linebackers coach with the Indianapolis Colts. From 1994-95, he coached linebackers with the Cleveland Browns. Bresnahan, 39, was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Maine from 1992-93. From 1988-91, he was an assistant at Georgia Tech, handling tight ends in his first season, then moving to inside linebackers for the final three seasons. During his time at Georgia Tech, the school shared a National Championship in 1990. Before joining the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant in 1983 for the Midshipmen, Bresnahan was a three-year letterman at the Naval Academy where he helped claim three Commander-in-Chief trophies. From 1983-87, Bresnahan was a commissioned officer in the Navy at the Adak, Alaska Naval Air Station where he served as a supply and physical fitness officer. He returned to the Naval Academy to coach the wide receivers/tight ends and special teams from 1986-87. Bresnahan's father was a coaching veteran of 17 years in the NFL. Bresnahan and his wife Erin have four daughters: Megan, Caitlin, Caroline and Danielle.

BILL CALLAHAN

Offensive Coordinator/Offensive Line

Bill Callahan, in his third season as offensive coordinator for the Raiders, added offensive line coach to his responsibilities in 1999 after coaching tight ends in 1998. Prior to joining the Raiders, Callahan, 44, coached offensive line for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1995-97, where he worked with Raiders Head Coach Jon Gruden. In 1995 and 1996, Callahan's unit helped the Eagles rank second in the NFC in rushing. From 1990-94, Callahan was offensive line coach at Wisconsin when Badger linemen earned nine first team All-Big Ten honors. In 1989, he was offensive coordinator at Southern Illinois where his offensive unit set 18 school records. Callahan served a two-year stint, 1987-88, as offensive line coach at Northern Arizona. His coaching career began in 1980 as a graduate assistant at Illinois before being promoted to full time assistant in 1981, coaching tight ends, offensive line, quarterbacks and special teams through 1986. The Chicago native was a three-year starter at quarterback at Illinois Benedictine, where he was an NAIA honorable mention All-American in his final two seasons. The Callahan family includes wife Valerie and their four children: Brian, Daniel, Cathryn and Jaclyn.

FRED BILETNIKOFF

Wide Receivers

Fred Biletnikoff, in his 26th year with the Raiders, returns for his ninth season as receivers coach. He coached receivers for the Silver and Black the last two seasons after spending the 1995-96 seasons in charge of quality control. The 57-year old Biletnikoff had spent the previous six years (1989-94) coaching Raiders wide receivers. The Pro Football Hall of Famer played 14 seasons for the Raiders from 1965-78. Biletnikoff coached wide receivers for Calgary of the Canadian Football League from 1987-88. He coached for two United States Football League teams: the Arizona Wranglers in 1986 and the Oakland Invaders in 1985. He also coached at Diablo Valley Junior College in 1984, Palomar Junior College in 1983, Orange Glen High School in 1982, and with Montreal of the CFL in 1980. He played in 190 games for the Raiders and was Most Valuable Player in Super Bowl XI. The Erie, Pennsylvania native was the Raiders all-time leading receiver (589 catches) until last season, when his pupil, Tim Brown, broke the mark. Biletnikoff still holds the Raider record for receiving TDs. He played in three AFL and five AFC title games and in Super Bowls II and XI. Biletnikoff played in two AFL All-Star games and four Pro Bowls after joining the Raiders as a 1965 second round draft choice from Florida State. His family includes wife Angela and five children.

WILLIE BROWN

Squad Development

Pro Football Hall of Famer Willie Brown, in his 29th year with the Raiders, is in his fifth season as Director of Squad Development. He was secondary coach for the Raiders from 1979-88, during which the team won two World Championships of Professional Football in Super Bowls XV and XVIII. He also coached the secondary in 1997 while serving as Director of Squad Development. Brown, 59, was an assistant at Long Beach State before taking over as head coach in 1991. In 1994, he was head coach at Los Angeles Jordan High. Brown earned his master's degree in Education at Long Beach State. He starred for the Raiders from 1967-78, beginning his pro career as a free agent with Houston. He spent 1963-66 with Denver before being traded to the Raiders. He played in 205 games and was chosen for three AFL All Star Games and four NFL Pro Bowls. He shares the Raider career interceptions record with 39, holds the Super Bowl record for the longest interception with a 75-yard TD return in Super Bowl XI and is the only player to have intercepted at least one pass in 16 straight seasons. He intercepted 54 passes in his pro career and was selected to the AFL-NFL 25-year All-Star team. The Yazoo, Mississippi native starred at Grambling from 1959-62 and is a member of the Louisiana Sports, Grambling State, Southwestern Athletic Conference and Mississippi Sports Halls of Fame. The Brown family includes wife Yvonne, two daughters and one son.

BOB CASULLO

Special Teams

Bob Casullo, a 26-year coaching veteran, has joined the Raiders coaching staff where he will serve as special teams assistant. In 1999, Casullo coached special teams as well as tight ends at Michigan State. His special teams units ranked first in the Big Ten — third in the nation — in net punting (40.2) and third in the Big Ten — 14th in the nation — in average per punt return (12.7). Casullo, 48, spent four seasons at Georgia Tech, where he coordinated special teams and coached running backs his first three seasons. In his final season there, he coordinated special teams and coached defensive ends. While at Georgia Tech, his special teams units consistently placed high in the conference and NCAA rankings and delivered a number of big plays. Casullo spent the 1985-94 seasons at Syracuse, where he coached special teams, tight ends, running backs and was recruiting coordinator during his tenure with the Orangemen. During his stint as special teams coordinator, the Orangemen ranked first or second in the Big East Conference in nearly every special teams stats category. Prior to joining the college coaching ranks, Casullo spent two years as the head coach at Baldwinsville High School in Syracuse and 10 seasons as an assistant at Henninger High School, also in Syracuse. The Little Falls, New York native was an honorable mention All-America running back at Brockport (N.Y.) State College, where he graduated in 1973 with degrees in physical education and political science. He also earned a master's degree in education from Syracuse. Casullo and his wife Pat have two children, Rocco and Jamie.

JIM ERKENBECK

Tight Ends

Jim Erkenbeck is in his second season with the Raiders. From 1995-98, he was tight ends coach and offensive assistant with Kansas City. He also coached for the Chiefs from 1989-91 and was offensive line coach with the L.A. Rams from 1992-94. Erkenbeck, 66, tutored the offensive line for Dallas from 1987-88 and New Orleans in 1986. From 1983-85, Erkenbeck was offensive coordinator of the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars. GARRETT GIEMONT

Strength and Conditioning

Garrett Giemont is in his sixth season with the Raiders heading up the Silver and Black's strength and conditioning programs during both the league season as well as the off-season. Prior to joining the Raiders, Giemont spent four years as Physical Development Coordinator in Major League Baseball with the Chicago Cubs. In his capacity with the Cubs, Giemont oversaw the strength and conditioning programs for both the baseball team's major league and minor league operations. The Fullerton, California native served as strength and conditioning coach for the Los Angeles Rams from 1990-91. Before being promoted to head of the strength and conditioning program, Giemont was the strength and conditioning trainer for the Rams from 1983-89. As the Rams strength trainer, Giemont worked with injured players in their rehabilitation programs. In addition, Giemont oversaw the team's weight training program and offseason conditioning workouts. Giemont began working with the Rams in 1970 in a part-time capacity and was hired full-time in 1978. From then until 1982, he served as assistant trainer and was promoted to strength and conditioning trainer in 1983. Giemont attended Fullerton High, then went to Fullerton College while also beginning his work with the Rams.

WOODROW LOWE

Defensive Assistant

Woodrow Lowe is in his second season with the Raiders after spending four seasons on the coaching staff of the Kansas City Chiefs handling both linebackers as well as assisting on special teams. Lowe, 45, entered the coaching ranks in 1990 after three years in private business. He coached at Russell County High in Seale, Alabama for two seasons, then moved to his alma mater, Central High in Phenix City, Alabama, where he helped lead the school to a state title in 1992. For the next two years, Lowe was head coach at Selma High School in Alabama before joining the Kansas City coaching staff in 1995. Lowe spent 11 seasons in the NFL as a linebacker with San Diego, where he played in (164) and started (151) more games than any other defensive player in Chargers history. Lowe served as Chargers team captain seven straight seasons and missed just one game in his pro career. The Columbus, Georgia native entered pro football as a fifth round pick of the Chargers following an outstanding career at the University of Alabama. He earned All-America honors three straight years while playing under the legendary Bear Bryant and was the captain of the Crimson Tide's 1973 National Championship team. Lowe and his wife Linda have two sons, Woodrow Jr. and Benjamin, and two daughters, Briana and Adrienne.

RON LYNN Defensive Backs

Ron Lynn, a 34-year coaching veteran — 17 years in college and 17 in the pros — joins the Oakland Raiders coaching staff. Lynn has Bay Area ties, having coached at San Jose State, University of Pacific and the University of California at Berkeley as well as with the Oakland Invaders of the United States Football League. Lynn, 55, was defensive backs coach with the New England Patriots from 1997-99. In his three seasons with New England, Lynn developed a secondary that included Pro Bowlers Ty Law and Lawyer Milloy. Prior to joining the Patriots, Lynn served as defensive coordinator for 12 seasons with four pro teams: the Washington Redskins from 1994-96; the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-93; San Diego from 1986-91 and the USFL's Oakland Invaders from 1983-85. The Youngstown, Ohio native played quarterback at Mt. Union College, graduating with a chemistry degree in 1966. Lynn began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Toledo while earning his master's degree in education. Lynn then was defensive coordinator and secondary coach at his alma mater from 1967-73 before moving on to Kent State, where he served in the same capacity from 1974-76. Lynn then coached running backs at San Jose State in 1977 before being promoted to assistant head coach/defensive coordinator for the Spartans in 1978. In 1979, he was defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Pacific, then was defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Cal from 1980-82. Lynn and his wife Cynthia have three children: Ryon, John and Alec.

DON MARTIN Quality Control, Defense

Don Martin is in his third season on the Raiders coaching staff after 16 seasons at Yale. Martin coached the wide receivers at his alma mater and helped produce numerous 40-catch receivers during his tenure. He was a member of the Philadelphia Eagles coaching staff as part of the NFL's Minority Coaches Fellowship Program in 1994. He also served a NFL Minority Coaches Fellowship with the Raiders during the 1990 training camp. Martin played for Yale and was billed "the fastest man to play football" at the university. In track, Martin held records in the 200, which still stands, and the 100-yard dash. The three-time Heptagonal Games champion in the 100 and 200-yard dashes also won the IC4A outdoor title in the 100-yard dash. Following an outstanding career in football and track at Yale, Martin was a seventh round pick by the Raiders in 1971. During his three year professional career, he played defensive back for the New England Patriots and the Kansas City Chiefs. Martin went on to earn an M.B.A. from Stanford and an M.A. in International Economics Development before joining Yale's coaching staff in 1981.

Offensive Assistant

John Morton is in his third year as offensive coaches' assistant. The 30-year-old Morton spent the 1997 season working in the Oakland Raiders player personnel department after having played for the World League's Frankfurt Galaxy during the spring of 1997. He originally signed with the Raiders as an undrafted rookie free agent in 1993 and spent part of the 1993 and 1994 seasons on the Silver and Black practice squad. Morton also spent time with the Green Bay Packers in 1993, where his position coach was Raiders Head Coach Jon Gruden. Morton was in training camp with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995 and with the Raiders in 1996. He also played for the CFL's Toronto franchise in both 1995 and 1996. Morton played collegiately at Western Michigan after transferring from Grand Rapids Community College. Despite playing only two seasons at Western Michigan, Morton finished his college career ranked 10th on the school's all-time receiving list with 78 catches. He also placed eighth in receiving yards (1,278) and was an all-conference receiver as a senior. The Pontiac, Michigan native was an all-league receiver at Avondale High in Auburn Hills, Michigan as a senior. His wife's name is Shannon.

SKIP PEETE

Running Backs

Skip Peete joined the Raiders in 1998 as running backs coach after serving in the same capacity at UCLA from 1996-97. During his two seasons at UCLA, Peete coached running back Skip Hicks to consecutive 1,000-yard and 20+ touchdown seasons. Prior to serving as an assistant at UCLA, Peete was wide receivers coach for Rutgers University. From 1993-94, he served in the same capacity with Michigan State.

Peete was a member of the University of Pittsburgh coaching staff from 1988-92. While with the Panthers, he coached the running backs from 1991-92 and tutored New York Jets running back Curtis Martin. Peete worked with the wide receivers at Pittsburgh from 1989-90. Peete was a graduate assistant for Pitt in 1988. The Phoenix, Arizona native began his collegiate playing career at the University of Arizona before transferring to the University of Kansas. While at Kansas, he was an All-Big Eight wide receiver in 1985 and was voted team captain during his senior campaign in 1986. In 1987, Peete was a wide receiver and special teams performer with the New York Jets. Peete's father, Willie, is a longtime college and NFL coach who recently retired from the pro player personnel department for the Chicago Bears. His brother, Rodney, is a veteran quarterback in the NFL who last year played for the Washington Redskins.

ROBIN ROSS

Linebackers

Robin Ross is in his second year handling linebackers for the Silver and Black. Ross, 45, was an assistant at the University of Oregon from 1997-98, first handling linebackers and then tutoring the defensive line. In 1996, Ross was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Fresno State after serving in the same capacity at Western Washington (1994-95), Iowa State (1987-93) and the University of Cincinnati (1984-85). He also was defensive line coach at Washington State in 1986 and at Long Beach State from 1977-83. Ross was a two-year letterman as an offensive lineman at Washington State, where he earned all-conference honors as a senior. He went on to play in the NFL for the San Francisco 49ers and Seattle Seahawks. Ross was an all-conference performer at Rio Hondo (California) Junior College after starring at El Rancho (California) High School. His wife's name is Jean.

DAVID SHAW

Quality Control, Offense

David Shaw is in his third season on the Raiders coaching staff after serving as offensive assistant on the Philadelphia Eagles coaching staff that also included Raiders Head Coach Jon Gruden and offensive coordinator Bill Callahan. RAIDERS ADMINISTRATION

AL LoCASALE Executive Assistant

Now in his fifth decade in charge of Raiders administration, Al LoCasale first joined the organization in 1969. Prior to that, he was Director of Player Personnel for the San Diego Chargers and the Cincinnati Bengals, helping build playoff teams for both organizations. LoCasale is an original American Football League executive, having helped form the Los Angeles Chargers when the American Football League — professional football's most successful new league — started in 1960. After seven years with the Chargers in Los Angeles and San Diego, including five Division Championships and one American Football League Championship, LoCasale became the first employee hired when Pro Football Hall of Fame member Paul Brown was awarded the Cincinnati Bengals expansion franchise. With the new Cincinnati team, LoCasale built the player personnel system that enabled the Bengals to become the first National Football League expansion team ever to win a division championship in just its third season of play. During his 47 years in football — 32 with the Raiders — LoCasale served as administrative assistant to the head football coach at the University of Southern California before joining the Chargers. He coached at the University of Pennsylvania — his alma mater — and at the U.S. Naval Training Center at Bainbridge, Maryland while on active duty in the Navy, in addition to coaching at the scholastic level in Philadelphia. LoCasale has done extensive work in both radio and television broadcasting since the early Sixties and is the author of a number of books, periodicals and films. On the approximately 13 acres adjacent to the building will be three grass practice fields. "This is the final step in a tremendous process of relocating the organization. This state-of-the-art facility will provide the Raiders organization a positive, winning environment. When completed, this facility will be the finest in all of professional sports and will provide a solid base for years to come, as the true greatness of the Raiders is in its future." July 12—Raiders open training camp in Napa. July 27—Raiders open 1996 preseason versus defending Super Bowl Champion Cowboys in Dallas. September 1—Raiders open their 37th league season of pro football with inaugural league contest in Baltimore versus Ravens. September 15—Raiders open 1996 home league schedule against Jacksonville Jaguars in newly-renovated Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum.

1997

January 25—Former defensive back Mike Haynes becomes the ninth Raider voted into Pro Football Hall of Fame, joining owner Al Davis, center Jim Otto, quarterback-kicker George Blanda, cornerback Willie Brown, guard Gene Upshaw, wide receiver Fred Biletnikoff, offensive tackle Art Shell and linebacker Ted Hendricks. January 30—Raiders name Joe Bugel—whose coaching career has spanned four decades—as head coach. Bugel, 56, becomes the 11th head coach in the organization's 37 years of professional football competition. Bugel is a veteran of over 30 years of coaching, including 21 in the NFL and the last two with the Silver and Black as the team's assistant head coach/offense. The native of football-rich Western Pennsylvania was head coach for the Phoenix Cardinals from 1990-93, accumulating a 20-44 record, including a 7-9 record in his final season while playing in the tough NFC Eastern Division. February 2—Three Raiders play in Pro Bowl in Honolulu, wide receiver Tim Brown, cornerback Terry McDaniel and defensive tackle Chester McGlockton. March 31—The Raiders moved up eight spots in the first round of the NFL Draft, acquiring the second overall selection in a trade with the New Orleans Saints. April 19—Raiders select USC defensive lineman Darrell Russell in the first round of the 1997 NFL Draft. May 8—The Silver and Black and Susquehanna Radio Corp. announce that Raider games will be carried on "The Ticket," 1050 AM, the Bay Area's newest all-sports radio station. "The Oakland Raiders are excited about participating in the new radio venture which will offer to Raider fans a dynamic perspective of pro football's winningest team," said Raiders Chief Executive Amy Trask. "We look forward to helping build a championship radio station—one that, like the Raiders, is a powerful force with a 'Commitment to Excellence.'" July 19—Raiders open second year of training camp based in Napa, California. July 26—Former Raider cornerback Mike Haynes inducted into Pro Football Hall of Fame in ceremony in Canton, Ohio. August 31—Silver and Black open their 38th league season of pro football and 25th year as Oakland Raiders with inaugural league contest versus the Tennessee Oilers in Memphis. September 8—Raiders open 1997 home league schedule on Monday Night against Kansas City Chiefs in the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. December 21—Tim Brown passed Pro Football Hall of Famer Fred Biletnikoff for the top spot on the Raiders all-time receiving list after catching a 20-yard pass from Jeff George in the first quarter of Raiders-Jacksonville contest. Biletnikoff, the Raiders receivers coach, had 589 career catches. Brown also set a Raiders record for receptions in a single game against Jacksonville with 14, breaking his own record of 12 on November 19, 1995 against Dallas.

1998

January 22—Jon Gruden—a veteran of seven years of NFL coaching experience and six at the college level—was named as head coach of the Oakland Raiders. Gruden spent three seasons as offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles after serving as receivers coach for the Green Bay Packers. Gruden, 34, becomes the youngest head coach presently employed in the NFL and the third-youngest in the history of the Silver and Black. Raiders owner Al Davis was 33 when he was named head coach and general manager in 1963 while John Madden was 32 when he was promoted to head coach in 1969. February 1—Three Raiders play in Pro Bowl, wide receiver Tim Brown, defensive tackle Chester McGlockton and guard Steve Wisniewski. April 19—Raiders select Michigan defensive back Charles Woodson with the fourth overall pick in the 1998 draft. Woodson is the first primarily defensive player to ever win the Heisman. The Raiders made a draft day trade to acquire Tampa Bay's first round pick and select Florida tackle Mo Collins. July 21—Raiders open training camp in Napa, California. August 8—Raiders open 1998 preseason in Dallas versus Cowboys. September 6—Raiders open league season on the road with Sunday night, nationally televised (ESPN) contest in Kansas City against Chiefs. December 26—Raiders play regular season finale versus their season opening opponent, Kansas City, this time at Network Associates Coliseum.

1999

February 7—Two Raider players, second-year defensive tackle Darrell Russell and rookie cornerback Charles Woodson, play in the NFC-AFC Pro Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii. April 17—Raiders select University of Georgia offensive lineman Matt Stinchcomb in the first round of the National Football League Draft. July 23—Raiders open training camp in Napa, California. August 7—Raiders open 1999 preseason in St. Louis versus Rams. Former Raider running back Eric Dickerson is inducted into Pro Football Hall of Fame in ceremony in Canton, Ohio. September 12—Raiders open 40th regular season in Green Bay versus Packers.

2000

February 6—Three Raider players, quarterback Rich Gannon, defensive tackle Darrell Russell and cornerback Charles Woodson, play in the NFC-AFC Pro Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii. Another Raider, Tim Brown, was voted to his eighth Pro Bowl (which ties a Raiders record) but did not play. April 15—Raiders select Florida State placekicker Sebastian Janikowski in the first round of the National Football League Draft. July 21—Raiders open training camp in Napa, California. July 29—Former Raider greats Howie Long and Ronnie Lott inducted into Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio ceremony. August 5—Raiders open 2000 preseason in St. Louis versus Super Bowl champion Rams. September 3—Raiders open 41st regular season at home versus San Diego Chargers.

RAIDERS RADIO NETWORK

For the fourth straight year, The Ticket 1050, the Bay Area's home for cutting edge sports talk, will serve as the flagship station of the Oakland Raiders Radio Network. The Ticket 1050 will broadcast all Raiders games live, starting with the preseason opener on August 5 in St. Louis against the Rams.

The 50,000-watt station will serve as the anchor of a radio network that covers 27 stations in eight states, including California, Arizona, Hawaii, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Washington and Wyoming.

During the off-season, The Ticket 1050 and the Raiders inked a new deal. The Ticket 1050 will continue to serve as the Raiders' flagship station for the 2000 NFL season.

"We're delighted to continue broadcasting Oakland Raiders football into the next century. The Ticket 1050 and the Raiders are perfect partners," said Tony Salvatore, Vice President of Susquehanna Radio and General Manager of The Ticket 1050. "The spirit and enthusiasm of Oakland Raider football and the continued association with this great franchise will remain as a foundation of our programming at The Ticket 1050."

"The Ticket's continuing relationship with the Raiders provides the most complete coverage of any sports franchise to their fans across the country," said Raiders Senior Assistant Bruce Allen.

Greg Papa begins his third year of broadcasting Silver and Black football. Papa also serves as the voice of the San Antonio Spurs and the Oakland A's and works NBA games for TNT. Papa got his start in broadcasting at the age of 21 when, in 1984, the Indiana Pacers hired him as a back-up announcer. The following year, Papa was named as the Pacers top announcer where he remained for another season before joining the Golden State Warriors in 1986 as their play-by-play announcer.

Papa will once again be teamed in the booth this year with former Raiders quarterback and head coach Tom Flores. Flores is one of only two people in NFL history to have a Super Bowl ring as a player, assistant coach and head coach. He earned his rings as a reserve quarterback with the Kansas City Chiefs in Super Bowl IV, as an assistant with the Raiders in Super Bowl XI, and as a head coach of the Silver and Black in Super Bowls XV and XVIII. Bob Frantz, who anchors the 5-9 p.m. slot on The Ticket 1050, will begin his first year broadcasting Raiders football, serving as the sideline reporter.

The Ticket's three-hour pre-game show and one hour post-game show will be anchored by JT "The Brick." JT anchors The Ticket 1050's noon-3 p.m. time slot, and is also the host of "The Brickhouse," heard on more than 100 stations nationwide on the Sports Fan Radio Network. He'll be joined again this year by Raider Legends George Atkinson and David Humm and former NFL and college football coach Artie Gigantino.

Atkinson roamed the secondary for the Silver and Black from 1968-77 and was a member of the 1976 squad that captured the first of three World Championships of Professional Football for the Raiders with a victory in Super Bowl XI. Humm served two tours of duty with the Raiders from 1975-79, then from 1983-84, and was a member of two Raider teams that won Super Bowls XI and XV.

Gigantino is a former assistant coach at the University of California at Berkeley, USC and with the L.A. Rams. He also broadcasts San Jose SaberCats Arena Football games as well as college football. Lee Hammer, Program Director of The Ticket 1050, will begin his second season as the Executive Producer of the Raiders Broadcasts.

Raiders football is not only a major part of the station's weekend programming, it's also an integral part of The Ticket 1050's weekday lineup. The station features "The Jon Gruden Show," Monday and Friday mornings during the season. Veteran wide receiver Tim Brown can be heard Tuesday and Thursday mornings, and for a full hour Tuesday night on "The Tim Brown Show."

In addition to serving as the home of the Raiders, The Ticket 1050 is also the flagship station of Stanford University football and basketball, and the San Jose SaberCats of the Arena Football League. The Ticket 1050 also carries the Super Bowl, NFC and AFC Championships, Monday and Sunday Night Football, the NBA and NHL Playoffs, the Major League Baseball Playoffs and World Series, the All Star Game, the Indy 500, Nascar Auto Racing, and Championship Boxing.

MEDIA INFORMATION

OAKLAND RAIDERS: 510-864-5000

PRESS BOX: 510-567-0702, 0703

P.R. FAX: 510-864-5160

PRESS BOX FAX: 510-382-1520

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Credential requests will be honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news or sports organization. Credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news or sports organization. All credential requests must be submitted in writing on company letterhead to Oakland Raiders MEDIA CREDENTIALS, 1220 Harbor Bay Parkway, Alameda, CA 94502 or by fax to 510-864-5160. Requests must be received at least one week prior to a home game.

PARKING: Media parking is limited. Every effort will be made to accommodate requests for parking passes, but parking cannot be provided for all credentialed media. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to stadium parking. TV trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will need to make prior arrangements with Jeff Reed at Network Associates Coliseum at 510-383-4805 to secure locations.

MEDIA ENTRANCE, PRESS WILL-CALL: The media entrance, as well as Press Will-Call, at the stadium is located at the North Pass Gate at the bottom of "F" parking lot.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers and videographers on assignment for a recognized news or sports organization. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field. Photographers check-in is the Media Entrance/Press Will Call.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS, LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Members of the media needing to conduct postgame interviews will be given access to the Raiders interview room after each game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. Raiders Head Coach Jon Gruden conducts his postgame news conference in a room adjacent to the Raiders locker room. Selected players will also be brought into the interview room following the game. The opponents head coach will be available outside the visitors locker room.

PRESS BOX, SERVICES: The press box and all broadcast positions are located on the loge level. Access is by the press elevator only. Programs, lineups, depth charts, statistics and game notes are provided at the end of each quarter. Complete team and individual statistics, lineups and substitutions, scoring summary, coaches and players comments and quarter summaries are available after the game. If postgame faxing of final stats or play-by-play is need, contact a member of the Raiders P.R. staff. There is a nominal charge for faxing postgame stats, as agreed upon by the Pro Football Writers Association.

PRESS LOUNGE: The press lounge is located behind Section 117 (second floor from the press elevator). It opens two hours prior to kickoff for accredited media members and football personnel. The press lounge remains open during games and may be used for overflow.

RAIDERS.COM

The Raiders were one of the first professional sports teams to launch an official website when the team went online in 1995. Since then, the site has evolved into one of the top sites devoted to a pro organization.

Located at <http://www.raiders.com>, the site continues to provide digital photos, official press releases, transactions, live on-line interviews with current, former Raiders players and team personnel along with features and updates on activity by the Raiders in the community.

In addition, features and photos of the draft, minicamps, training camp and the season will be covered on raiders.com.

In 2000, the official website of the Oakland Raiders — www.raiders.com — will include even more cutting edge technology combined with information, offering visitors an in-depth, state-of-the-art look at the Silver and Black.

RAIDERS TRAIN IN NAPA

The Oakland Raiders are now in their fourth year of summer training in Napa, California. The Raiders are housed at the Napa Valley Marriott Hotel and Conference Center with practice sessions held at the adjacent Redwood Middle School.

There are two 100-yard practice fields with an additional 50-yard field at the facility. The Raiders summer training facility also consists of a 10,000 square foot field house that includes locker rooms, showers, training and equipment quarters. There's an additional 3,000 square foot outdoor weight training area.

The facilities serve the Raiders during the summer training camp period and are available for Napa youth activities and other community functions during the year.

INSTANT REPLAY

2000 NFL INSTANT REPLAY SYSTEM

The system begins with the replay booth receiving a "live" feed from the network television control truck covering the game. The "technician" in front of the live-feed monitor cues up the live play by pressing the "make play" button on his console as the ball is snapped. That automatically puts the play on a "touch-screen monitor" positioned in front of the replay assistant. When a replay comes up from the truck, the technician presses a "make replay" button and that automatically pops up on the touch-screen monitor. The monitor can accommodate six replay angles of a single play.

The "replay assistant" is positioned in front of the touch-screen monitor. This person decides which replays will be relayed to the field monitor for review by the referee after a coach's challenge is issued, and whether an official's time-out will be called for a play review in the final two minutes of each half and overtime.

The "video operator," at the instruction of the replay assistant, will tap the touch-screen monitor (similar to a bank's automatic teller machine that prompts commands by the tapping of its screen) to transfer one of the replays to the booth's third monitor that is positioned between him and the replay assistant. The video operator can control the speed of the playback on this monitor by the turn of a dial. This is the monitor on which the replay assistant will view all replays. The video on this monitor is what the referee on the field will see.

The "communicator" is the replay booth's "eyes to the field." While the technician, replay assistant and video operator are doing their jobs, the communicator, stationed in back of the other three, is watching the field. He will advise the replay assistant—who is busy viewing the monitor—that "they're in the huddle," "they're on the line" and "the ball is snapped" so the replay assistant will know that the next play has started, negating the possibility of a replay. He will also report to the replay assistant if an official ruling (e.g. holding, illegal procedure, etc.) has been made on the field following a play that might eliminate the need for a replay.

The communicator also is the timer of the 90 seconds allocated to the referee to make a decision on a replay. Once 90 seconds are reached, the communicator will hit a red button on the console in front of the replay assistant that will automatically shut off the field-level monitor, signaling to the referee that the 90 seconds has expired and the review is over. The referee must then announce his decision.

If needed, the communicator will also explain a referee's ruling to the TV truck and to the teams' public relations directors in the press box for dissemination to the media. A "buzzer system" will be utilized to signal the call for a replay. Before the final two minutes, the head coach will buzz the referee and replay booth that he challenges a play and wants a review. Within the final two minutes, the booth will buzz the referee, calling for a replay. The head coaches will wear a belt pack containing a buzzer. When pressed, the buzzer will simultaneously signal the referee, umpire and replay booth that a replay is being requested.

There will be three replay monitors at field level in open-air stadiums. Two will be positioned at opposite 20-yard lines near the sideline wall. A third will be in a runway, for use if there is inclement weather. Two monitors will be used in domed stadiums.

As the referee approaches the monitor, his first replay will await him. His 90 seconds for a decision begins when he puts on the headphones that put him in contact with the replay booth.

2000 RULES OF REPLAY

COACHES CHALLENGE Outside the final two minutes of each half, each team will be permitted two challenges per game that will initiate referee reviews. Each challenge will cost a team a time-out. If a challenge is upheld, the time-out will be restored, but the challenge will not. No challenges will be recognized from a team that has exhausted its time-outs.

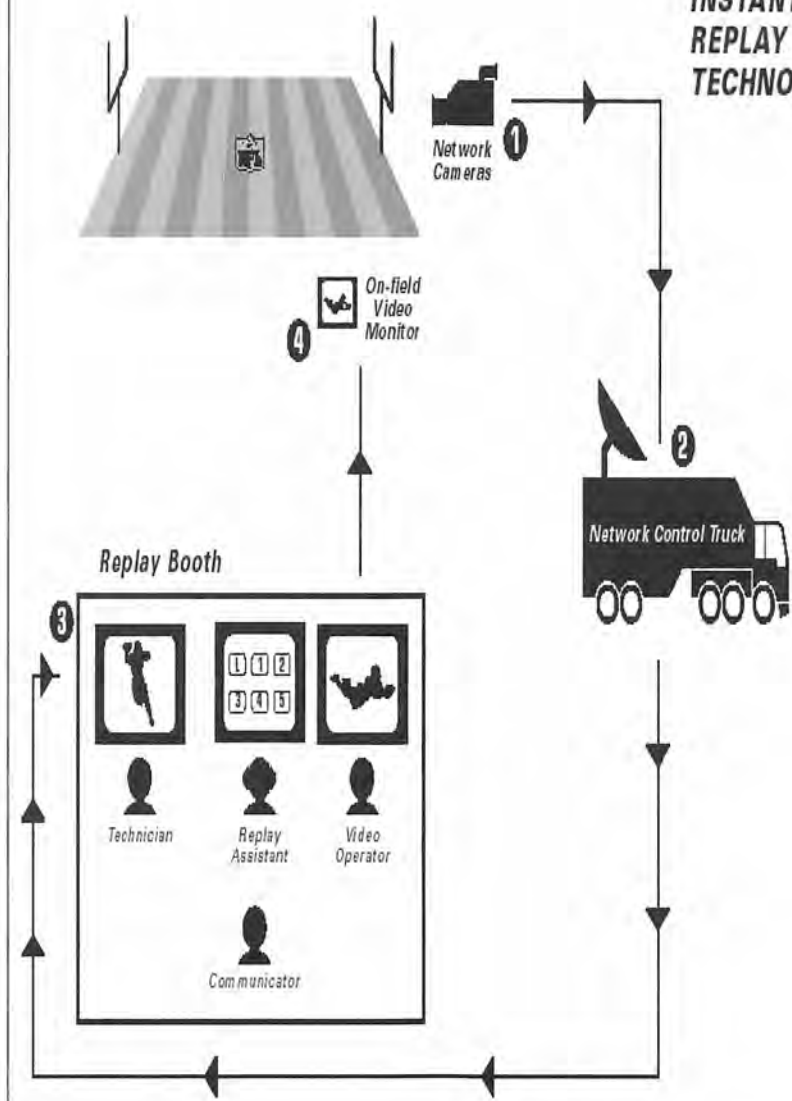

FINAL TWO MINUTES OF EACH HALF After the two-minute warning of each half, and throughout any overtime period, any referee review will be initiated by the replay assistant in the replay booth in the press box. He can initiate as many review requests as he thinks necessary, no matter how many time-outs the teams may have. No time-out will be charged for a review initiated from the replay booth.

REFEREE REVIEW All replay reviews will be conducted by the referee on a field-level monitor after consultation with the other covering officials on the play. A decision will be reversed only when the referee has indisputable visual evidence that the call should be changed. The referee cannot initiate a replay in any instance.

TIME LIMIT Reviews will be a maximum of 90 seconds, timed from when the referee puts on the headphones to the replay booth.

REVIEWABLE PLAYS The instant replay system will cover a variety of plays in three main areas—1) sideline, goal line, end zone, and end-line plays; 2) passing plays; and 3) other detectable infractions, such as a runner ruled down not by defensive contact, and the number of players on the field.
